Huntly to Greenmyres Eco Bothy

Huntly Square
Greenmyres Eco Bothy

9km / 5.6miles
1-2 hours - cycling
2 hours - walking

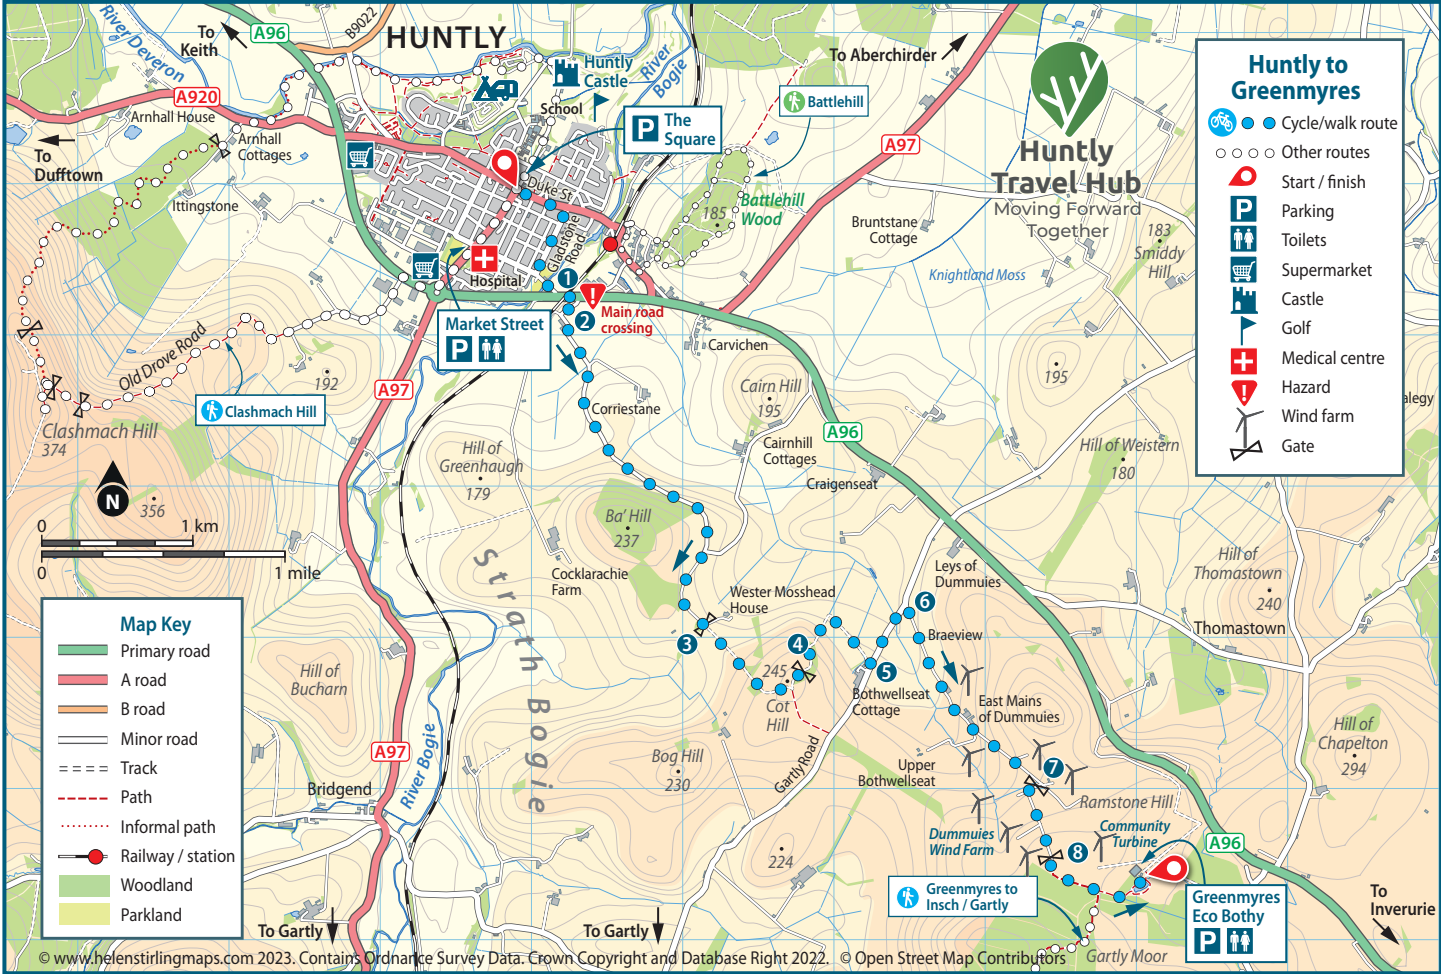

The cycle/walk route to Greenmyres eco-bothy uses a mixture of quiet roads, farm / windfarm tracks, and a loosely bound cycle path, (put in by the Huntly Development trust). The route is marked with green arrows on wooden signs. Suitable for hybrid / mountain bikes.

Start from The Square in Huntly and head east down Duke Street, until turning right onto Gladstone Road. At the end of Gladstone Road take a left at the allotments onto a track crossing a blue bridge 1 over the River Bogie, continue down a path to the A96. Follow path alongside the A96 until reaching a crossing point to head up Ba' Hill. Walk for 50 metres then turn left at junction. 2

Continue along this quiet road for 2km, going past Ba' Hill woodland. When the road turns into a dirt track carry on straight, until reaching the start of the grassy path on the right 3 after a pedestrian gate. Head uphill on this grassy path, passing through a further gate. Once at the crest of the hill there is another gate on the left with a sign pointing to Greenmyres, 4 head through this gate and follow the cycle track down the hill meeting a minor road. 5

Once on the Gartly road turn left and follow the road for 100 meters then turn right along a farm track, 6 taking you up past Dummuies farm and into Dummuies windfarm. Upon reaching the wind farm take a right through the gate and carry on to the end of the track. 7

At the end of the track (next to a wind turbine) take a left through the wooden gate and onto the cycle path. 8 Follow the path, ignoring the turn off for Gartly Moor. The eco bothy will be visible on the left.
